

Mississaugas of Scugog Island First Nation BYLAW No. 105

Council Meeting Procedure During The Covid-19 Pandemic

Definition

1. In this bylaw, "video conferencing application" means an internet-based video conferencing application selected by Council which permits live, real-time communication among participants by means of electronic transmission of audio and video signals.

Council Meetings

2. Meetings of Council may be convened entirely or in part by video conferencing application, and every video conference participant shall be deemed to be present at the meeting.

Voting in meetings of Council

3. Voting in meetings of Council convened entirely or in part by video conferencing application may be conducted as follows:

- a. members of Council participating by video conferencing application may vote on any motion or resolution by show of hands or by audibly indicating whether the participant is in favor or opposed, and each such vote shall be confirmed by the presiding officer or other person designated for the purpose of recording votes by resolution of Council; and
- b. a paper record of a resolution or any other instrument adopted by the Council pursuant to this bylaw shall be the official copy thereof if signed by a majority of Council, manually or by electronic signature, either together in the same instrument or in counterparts in which case all counterparts together shall constitute one and the same instrument, and notwithstanding the date of such signatures, the date of the resolution shall be deemed to be the date of the meeting of Council at which it was adopted

In force period

4. This bylaw shall come into force and effect immediately upon publication by posting on the Mississaugas of Scugog Island First Nation internet website and shall expire at midnight on Friday, 31 December 2021, subject to its earlier repeal by resolution of Council.

CERTIFICATION

This bylaw was duly enacted by the Mississaugas of Scugog Island First Nation at a regular meeting of Council convened on notice on May 11, 2021.
